STEVENS-WILSON COMPANY

FIRE DESTROYS WHOLESALE GROCERY

Durant, Ok., Nov. 24.—Durant was the scene of one of the worst fires in its history, when the Hale-Halsell Grocery Company's wholesale house was destroyed early today. The blaze was discovered and the alarm turned in about 5 o'clock this morning, but the flames had such a headway by the time the department arrived very little good work was done.

The department fought until the flames reached a car load of ammunition, which had just been unloaded, and the explosions made fighting the fire too dangerous.

This was one of the largest wholesale houses in Southwest Oklahoma and the loss of stock is estimated at $200,000, and the loss on the building $50,000, all covered by insurance.

Tom Hale of McAlester, president of the company, was here today looking over the ruins, and stated that the plant would be rebuilt at once on a larger and more improved scale.

MOODY BIBLE INSTITUTE HAS LARGE ATTENDANCE

The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago is putting new vigor into the training of its large body of students along the more practical lines of church and mission work. It has called Mr. William Wallace Ketchum to have charge of the department, who for several years, did expert work of that kind in connection with the Bible Teacher's School of New York.

He will have some 300 students of both sexes under his care during the year, giving them demonstration work in church, gospel settlements, tents, out door preaching, and in the homes of the native and foreign-born people.

All the training of the institute in all its departments is offered free to Christian men and women of every denomination and every land and the output, through the graduating classes, goes to the ends of the earth in Christian service.

Celebrate Evacuation Day

New York, Nov. 25.—One hundred and thirty years ago today the people of New York gathered at the Battery to witness the departure of the British troops, whose evacuation of the city was followed the next day by the entrance of Washington and the American army. In accordance with time-honored custom the Old Guard today celebrated the anniversary by marching down Broadway from City Hall to the battery, raising the flag on the parade grounds amid the booming of twenty-one guns, and then retiring to their armory to partake of a luncheon and the celebrated punch. Even the busy bulls and bears of Wall street abandoned the ticker for a few minutes to watch the famous military organization as it marched through the streets in full regalia.

PONTOTOC CO. PRESS ORGANIZES ASSOCIATION

Monday evening a meeting was held for the purpose of organizing the printing interests of Pontotoc county into a press association. The inclement weather prevented much of an attendance, only Wm. Felter of the Roff Eagle being present from out of town. T. J. Cross of the Francis Wigwam was in the city during the afternoon, but pressure of business made it necessary for him to return home.

However, an organization was effected with Wm. Felter as president, W. T. Pugh of the Stonewall News, vice-president, and L. R. Clark of the Ada Star-Democrat, secretary-treasurer. A committee to draft constitution and by-laws was appointed consisting of J. W. Jumper of the Allen Hustler, T. J. Cross of the Francis Wigwam and Byron Norrell of the Ada News.

The next meeting will be held at Ada the first Saturday night in January, at which time the organization will be completed.

Don't forget the Poultry Assn. will meet at 8 o'clock tonight at police court room.

Among the attractions at the Grand this evening will be a picture showing the lake asphalt industry of Trinidad, in the animated weekly. "Curing the Doctor" is a laughable comedy. Coming tomorrow: Florence Lawrence in "The Girl o'-the-Woods" a two-part drama.

G. W. McClelland of Fort Smith, Ark., was in the city today prospecting for a hotel location.

BATTLE IN PROGRESS

JUAREZ IS PRIZE BOTH FACTIONS IN MEXICO ARE EAGER TO HOLD.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 24.—A general federal attack aimed at Juarez, front, right and left flank, delivered practically simultaneously this afternoon by Gen. Salazar, Rojas, Caravaco and Landa, drove in Gen. Pancho Villa's skirmish line and developed separate engagements below Baucha on the west, at Tierra Blanca on the front and along the border, opposite Belen and Yelela, Tex., to the east.

The frontal attack on the Constitutionalists under Gen. Villa began at 4:30 o'clock, about twenty-five miles south of Juarez, according to an American chauffeur, who reached Juarez at 6 o'clock this evening from Tierra Blanca. The entire army on both sides was engaged.

A report that the federals were attempting flank movement from the west reached Juarez about the hour the frontal battle was reported. Two hundred mounted men were dispatched to Rancho Flores to hold the western mouth of the pass which entered the town from the west.

Two reports stated that Gen. Villa's western flank engaged the federals at 5 o'clock. These reports came from American employees of the Mexican Northwestern railroad, who reached Juarez tonight from below Baucha. The advices were that the federals were first repulsed in an attempt to break through the enemy's lines, but returned with reinforcements and a desperate battle was on when the Americans left.

Simultaneously with the report of the attack on the west, came advices that the skirmish line of the Constitutionalists on the east of Belen, Tex., was being driven in and the federals were advancing on Juarez.

The remainder of the force at Juarez was rushed to the region opposite Yelela and Belen, while additional infantry reinforcements were hurried to Rancho Flores to help check the flank movement from the west.

On the American side all troops at Fort Bliss were ready for immediate action and Troop C. Thirteenth Cavalry, and a machine gun platoon were ordered to El Paso to reinforce the border patrol.

Reports from all sides at 7 o'clock declared that all the engagements were general. At that hour word was received from Gen. Villa that he was holding the federals back at the front and ordered ammunition and provisions rushed to Tierra Blanca.

Auxiliary hospitals are being fitted up in Juarez tonight, a large quantity of medical stores being exported from here.

Before the developments of the federal assaults, Gen. Villa reported that the enemy withdrew ten miles from their position at Samalayuca early this morning, reoccupied the position at 3 o'clock and immediately began an advance on the revolutionists' position, seven miles north.

The telephone girl at Yelela, Tex., a border town a few miles east of here, stated that a fierce battle was in progress between Villa's men and federals at that point and that the former were retreating rapidly toward Juarez.

Wounded men from the battle opposite Belen are crossing the border to the Texas side. Late advices say the federals were reinforced during the day by troops from Chihuahua. Reports reaching Juarez tonight say that Pascual Orozco and Gen. Salvador Mercado brought 2,000 additional federal troops from the state capital and they engaged in the battle.

Reports reaching the United States border patrols east of Juarez tonight stated that during the fighting Orozco with 4,000 men charged the left wing of Gen. Villa's army in an attempt to capture Juarez, but met reinforcements from Villa's main body and was driven back.

The report also said that Chihuahua was evacuated by the federals and that the city had been occupied by Carrancista troops under Gen. Manuel Chao.

The number of people getting off and on the trains at Ada is something that causes comment from all who observe it, and this morning a citizen who happened to be at the station when the north Frisco train arrived counted seventy-two who disembarked. When it is remembered that this has been far from a pleasant day and people were not doing any unusual amount of travel, the full significance of this will become apparent.

WILLIAMS AND THE NEWSBOYS.
 Some of his enemies show their littleness in ascribing to political motives the act of Judge R. L. Williams in giving a dinner to the newsboys of Oklahoma City on Thanksgiving day. If the judge were really playing politics he would assemble around him on that occasion a crowd of the big politicians of the state and allow the little fellows who are on the streets early and late to shiver outside, for certainly they have no votes and no influence to give in return for the pleasant occasion he has planned for them. This is not the first time the judge has thus remembered the boys for he has made it a sort of annual celebration. He is possessed of a big heart and derives as much or more pleasure from these events as the youthful recipients. Many clouds and little sunshine comes into the lives of many of these boys, and an occasion of this kind is never forgotten. It is a beam of brightness for a time dispelling the gloom. Judge Williams remembers the day when he himself was a barefoot boy and his example is one that others might follow to splendid advantage. There is nothing nobler than bringing sunshine into the lives of others. If that is politics, let us have more of it. It is a sort of politics that is certainly no injury to the state.

The News would like to distribute its big booster edition with its compliments, but it has cost too much to give away. However, it is being sold at a price that will enable everybody to send out a few to friends in other states.

STRENGTH FOR OLD PEOPLE

Old people, to overcome the weakening, debilitating effects of increasing old age, often make a very sad mistake in using so-called "remedies" that contain alcohol and dangerous or habit-forming drugs. Often this stuff, because it livenes and brightens them up a little just after taking a dose leads them to imagine that it is doing them good, when it isn't. Remedies that rely for their sale on such a deceit, do harm, because the false excitement of the nerves and heart leaves them worse than they were before.

Rehall Olive Oil Emulsion is a real medicine—a splendid body and strength-builder, especially good for old people, because it furnishes to the system ingredients necessary to rebuild wasted tissues, strengthen the nerves, give new energy and a younger and livelier feeling to the body. It doesn't contain a drop of alcohol nor any dangerous drug. It may not make you feel better after the first dose, nor perhaps for several days. But if you don't feel much better and stronger before you have taken a quarter as much as you have of other medicines that didn't help you, we will gladly give you back your money. That's certainly a square deal.

The four Hypophosphites it contains are used by leading physicians everywhere in debility, weakness and liability to disease, to tone and strengthen the nerves. Purest Olive Oil, one of the most nutritious, most easily-digested foods known, being taken with the hypophosphites, gives rich tissue nourishment to the entire system.

You who are weak and rundown, and you who are apparently well now but are liable to suffer from various cold weather ailments, use Rehall Olive Oil Emulsion to get and keep well and strong. For the tired-out, run-down, nervous, emaciated debilitated—the convalescing—growing children—aged people—it is a sensible pleasant-tasting aid to renewed strength, better spirits, glowing health. If it does not help you, your money will be given back to you with out argument. Sold in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store—One of more than 7,000 leading drug stores in the United States, Canada and Great Britain.—Gwin & Mays Drug Co., Ada, Okla.

Don't miss seeing the great production, "SATAN" which will be shown at the De Sota theatre on next Friday. This film ranks among the greatest masterpieces, and every bit of the 5,000 feet of the photoplay is replete with sensational climaxes. The pictures are marvelously realistic and the purpose of the film is to convey the impression that Satan has, ever since the creation, influenced mankind to deviate from the laws laid down by his Maker. This production is in a class by itself and forms a most interesting and instructive entertainment.

Government Sale of Timber Lands

There will be offered at public auction at the places and times herein named at not less than appraised valuations about 1,279,000 acres of timber lands with standing timber thereon, which includes about 1,043,357,500 feet of pine, as estimated in 1911, and approximately 141,940,000 feet of hard wood, located in the Choctaw Nation, southeastern Oklahoma. Sales

Bids may be submitted either in person or by agent with power of attorney. Land and timber will be sold together. Detailed information, including descriptive lists, showing quantity and appraisement of timber and land in each tract will be furnished without cost after October 1, 1913; maps, showing location and accessibility to railroads of each tract, will be furnished at a cost of fifty cents each. more per acre, but they want to secure better prices for their products that they may have more of the comforts and conveniences of life.

There are two things in which we are vitally interested that require continued co-operation. One of these is better roads and the other is better schools. In the past there has been much money squandered in doing road work which was only temporary in its nature. Now we are trying to undo the mistakes of the past and build permanent highways. It is up to the people to do their art and not to depend too much on money raised by taxation. Every land owner should try to control the water falling on his own land so that it will not injure the adjoining highway. No amount of grading and graveling is going to make a good road as long as a torrent of water is turned on it from a neighboring field.

ANDREW CARNEGIE'S BIRTHDAY

New York, Nov. 25.—Andrew Carnegie, capitalist, philanthropist, author and philosopher, today passed another milestone—the 78th—on his journey through life. He observed the day quietly in his Fifth Avenue home with his wife and daughter. He is in good health, as well as he has felt in years, as he declared to the numerous friends who called during the day to offer their congratulations.

Although it is now many years since he retired from active business Mr. Carnegie says he has not yet reached the age when he can afford to sit by the fireside and take life easy. There are few busier men in New York than the former steel master. While supposed to be enjoying his customary vacation in Scotland the past summer Mr. Carnegie in reality was scurrying hither and thither on the continent, attending the sessions of the peace conference at the Hague and incidentally running over to Berlin to have a confidential chat on world affairs with the German Emperor.

In view of the record during the past few years it begins to look like it is almost impossible to fire a state employee. One always invokes the aid of an injunction and fights along until his term expires. The latest instance of the kind is the A. & M. bunch, which has asked the protection of the courts in holding the jobs which have been theirs for some years past. Some legislator would immortalize his name if he could invent some method whereby an officer of any kind could be turned out before his term expired, if he happened to want to stay on the job.

A Good Idea for Christmas.

In the December Woman's Home Companion appears a page given up to good ideas for Christmas, telling how to have a happier holiday than you have ever had before. Following is a suggestion made by Elizabeth Jerome:

"In the place of the Christmas tree, which is not always obtainable, try the following way of distributing the Christmas gifts.

"Have each member of the family choose beforehand a favorite color—Baby's may be white—then let the respective packages be wrapped in tissue paper, or tied with ribbon or twine of the chosen color, of course labeling them as usual to prevent mistakes.

"Then have them all hidden, there, there, everywhere, anywhere—even in auto or garage, where Daddy or Brother might be expected to enter during the day.

"After breakfast for it is too long and exciting a game to start before the morning meal, on with the hunt. No one must divulge the hiding place or touch the package of another, except for baby—all can serve baby.

"Such shouts of joy and delight as each bit of personal color is spied and pounced upon. A gift has been known to turn up most unexpectedly even later in the week, making the fun last right on until New Year's. Until you try this novel distributing game, you don't know how much it will add to the festivities of the holiday."

"When Society Calls" is the title of a beautiful drama showing the dangers and lure of modern society life. Earle Williams and Lillian Walker are the stars in this performance. "Bumps and Willie" is the funniest comedy of the season. "Napoleon Wiffles, Esq." is another lively comedy. Majestic theatre.

York Mr. Carnegie regularly puts in six hours or more each day looking over his voluminous mail and considering appeals for financial assistance from libraries, colleges philanthropic and charitable organizations and countless individuals in almost every part of the world. That many of these appeals meet with a substantial response is evidenced by the fact that Mr. Carnegie's gifts thus far in 1913 amount to many millions of dollars. The grand total of his benefactions probably never will be known, since there are many educational contributions and contributions for charity in which the public is not taken in to his confidence. It is a probable fact, however, that the man who started his career as a telegraph messenger boy on a weekly wage of four dollars, has given away more money for philanthropic purposes than any other man in the history of the world.

GAME WITH TECUMSEH HAS BEEN CANCELLED

Last evening the manager of the Tecumseh High school football team phoned that we would have to grant him the privilege of playing at least three players outside of the school or they would call off the game. I have given my consent for the Ada High school boys to play football on condition that they do creditable work in the school room and have good deportment. Anything that tends toward professionalism will not be tolerated. If we had granted the request of Tecumseh our boys who are all regular pupils of public school ages would possibly have to compete with professional football players who do not attend school at all. In view of the fact that Mr. French has developed a first class team which stands for clean athletics we are sorry that the boys will not have the opportunity to demonstrate some of their training on Thanksgiving day. However, on account of conditions above stated we have decided that it is best not to play the game.

T. W. ROBISON, Supt.

Granddaughter of "Black Eagle Weds." New York, Nov. 25.—A large and distinguished assemblage of guests filled St. Thomas's church this afternoon for the wedding of Miss Edith Logan and Dewes W. Dilworth. The bride was given away by her brother, John A. Logan, 3rd. She had her elder sister, Mme. de Sincay of Paris, as matron of honor, and her bridesmaids were the Misses Audrey Osborne, Vouletti Proctor, Mercedes de Acosta, and Eleanor Lamson. Mr. Dilworth was attended by William de Forest Manke as best man. The ceremony was followed by a reception at the residence of the bride's mother in West Fifty-sixth street.

The bride is the granddaughter of Gen. John A. Logan. Her father, the late Major John A. Logan, was killed while leading his men into action near San Fabian in the Philippines in November, 1899. Six of his men fell with him and another officer and twelve men were wounded. Major Logan married Miss Edith Andrews, daughter of the late C. H. Andrews of Youngstown, Ohio, in 1887.

Mr. Dilworth, the bridegroom belongs to a family well known in Pittsburgh and in New York City. He is a Yale graduate and is in business in this city.

To Cure Salt Rheum and Scaly Skin

A most Effective Treatment and Quick in Results.

Salt rheum, scaly skin and other itching skin afflictions may be soothed by frequent applications of witch hazel. But the cure must come from the activity of the fine network of blood vessels that make up the skin formation. You should use S. S. S. for the blood. This splendid remedy is a marvel for salt rheum, eczema, lupus, psoriasis and scrofula. Ask at any drug store for a bottle of S. S. S., and you are then on the road to health. The action of this remarkable remedy is direct, positive, certain in its influence. It is one of those rare medical forces which act in the blood with the same degree of certainty that is found in all natural tendencies.

Out through every skin pore acids, germs and other blood impurities are forced in the form of invisible vapor. There is scarcely a community anywhere but what has its living example of the wonderful curative effects of S. S. S. Get a bottle of this famous remedy to-day, and if your case is stubborn or peculiar, write to The Swift Specific Co., 188 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

Beware of all substitutes for S. S. S., the remedy you can depend upon for safety and effectiveness.

MISS LENA WEST THE WINNER

WILL REPRESENT ADA NORMAL
IN TRIANGULAR READING
CONTEST DECEMBER 1.

Miss Lena West was the winner in the preliminary reading contest held at the normal Monday evening for the purpose of selecting a champion for Ada against Durant and Tahlequah. The winner was given a grade of 96 and a fraction. The other contestants were Misses Vera McMillan, Lucy Baker and Helen Myers. All the young ladies acquitted themselves most creditably and Ada's chance to win final honors is most excellent. In fact it would be hard to find four more talented young ladies in any school than contested for the honors of Monday evening. The judges were Supt. Battenburg of Atoka, Mrs. Parrish of Jonesboro, Arkansas, and Miss Stinson of Tishomingo.

The final contest will take place at Ada on the evening of December 6. Heretofore two readers have been chosen, one to represent the Ada school against each of the other east-side normals on the occasion of the debates, but it has been thought advisable to hold only one reading contest in which all three shall participate and on a date different from the debates.

As previously announced an important feature of the program was a concert by the normal band, and this body of musicians has reached a point of proficiency that enables them to meet any emergency and add much to the normal spirit. The band really excelled itself Monday evening.

Owing to the fact that the inclement weather interfered somewhat with the attendance, the band concert will be repeated soon. The tickets of those who were present last evening were returned and may be used at the next concert.

BE JEALOUS OF THE BEAUTY OF YOUR HAIR

In other words, be careful of it. The beauty of your hair depends upon its health. If it's beautiful, it's healthy. To make it glossy, bright, silky-soft—to make it fall more easily into the graceful, wavy folds of the coiffure—to make it stay where you put it—use Harmony Hair Beautifier. This dainty liquid dressing is just what it is named—a beautifier. If your hair is beautiful now, use it to make it even more so, and to preserve its loveliness. If it is not beautiful now, Harmony Hair Beautifier will improve its appearance in a way to please you, or money back. Its rose fragrance will over come the oily smell of your hair. Easy to apply—simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it. Contains no oil; will not change color of hair, nor darken gray hair.

To keep hair and scalp dandruff-free and clean, use Harmony Shampoo. This pure liquid shampoo gives an instantaneous rich lather that immediately penetrates to every part of hair and scalp, insuring a quick, thorough cleansing. Washed off just as quickly, the entire operation takes only a few moments. Contains nothing that can harm the hair; leaves no harshness or stickiness—just a sweet cleanliness.

Both preparations come in odd-shaped, very ornamental bottles, with sprinkler tops. Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1.00. Harmony Shampoo, 50c. HANGING PULLED OFF AT OKLAHOMA CITY

Oklahoma City, Ok., Nov. 25.—"Did you know there was to be a hanging in Oklahoma City Tuesday noon?" whispered a young lady stenographer in Gov. Cruce's office. In view of the governor's pronounced policy in commuting death sentences to life imprisonment, this was an important piece of information, and the newspaper reporters who heard it had visions of first-page "stuff." Not one of the writing crew that makes daily visits to the governor's office knew of a pending death sentence in Oklahoma county, but they were willing to be informed.

"Is that a fact?" they asked of the informant. "Who is the victim?"

"I can not tell you more," the young lady stenographer replied. "Only the governor has declined to interfere in this case, and if you want the facts you had better talk to him, but for godness sake, don't mention having talked to me about it."

A few moments later, in the governor's presence, a correspondent was treading softly that well-known route by which the craft lets it be known they are familiar with a story, at the same time carefully concealing the source of their information.

"I don't know of any hanging to take place in Oklahoma County," said the governor, "except we are to hang some curtains here about Tuesday noon."

"Well, I'll be hanged," exclaimed the correspondent.

That was the hanging, but there was no legal execution in prospect. In truth, the governor's offices have been "all dolled up" here of late as one or the curtains furnish the final detail of decoration.
